

IPB: MAIN PROGRAMMES 1990 --

International Peace Bureau

Disarmament for Development

World Court Project (WCP)

from Hiroshima to the Hague

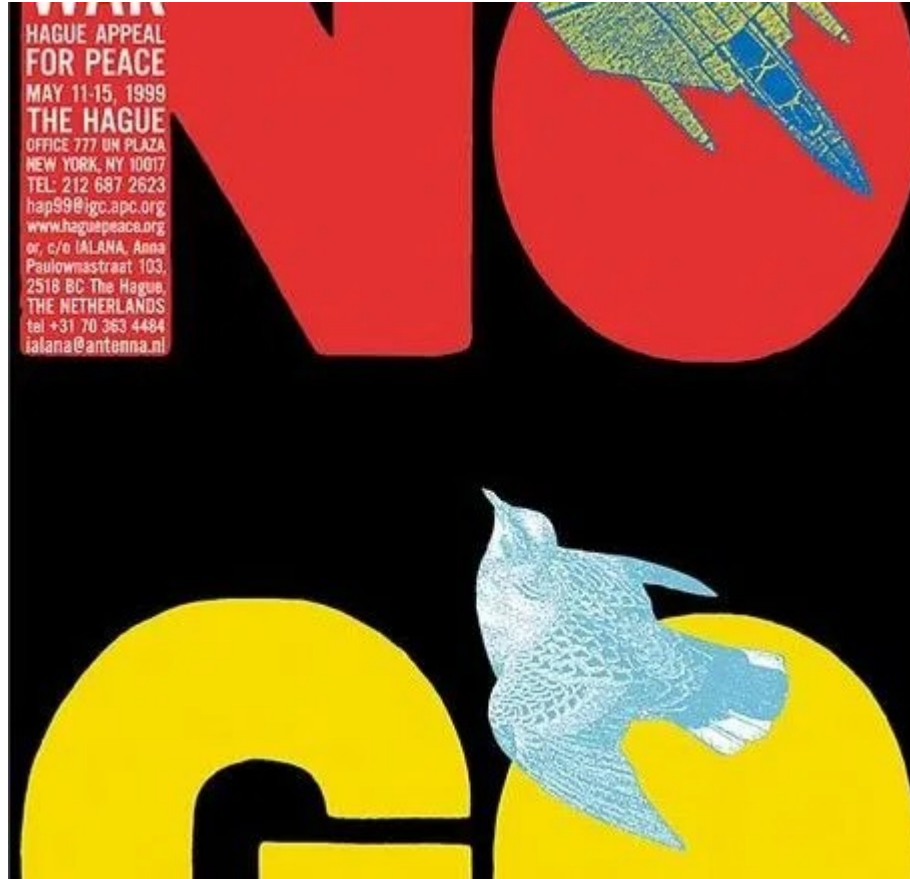

A guide to the World Court Project
by Keith Mothersson

Published by the International Peace Bureau as a contribution to the UN Decade for International Law
Geneva, 1992

ipb

Hague Appeal for Peace

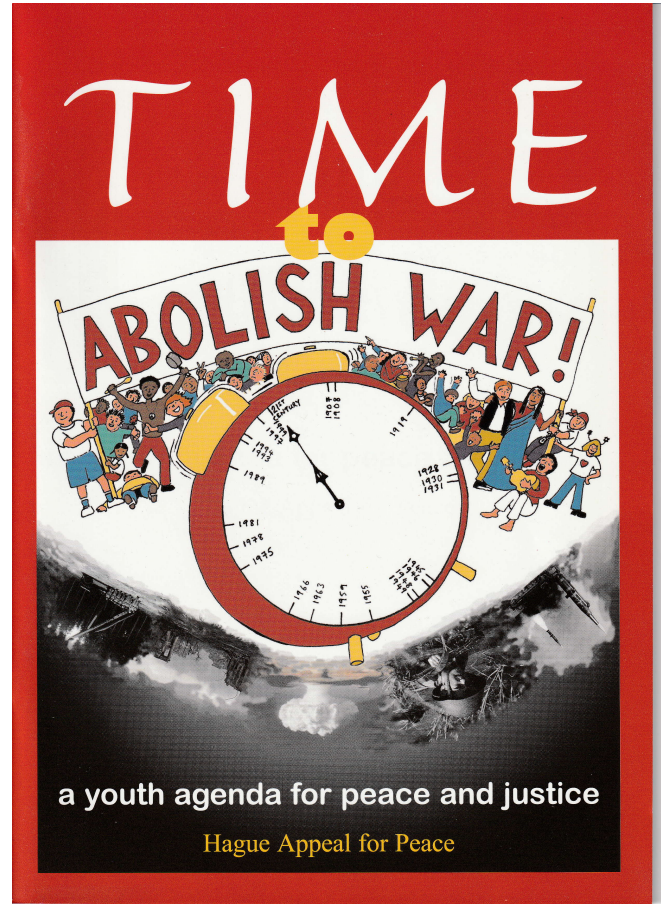

Hague Appeal Conference 1999

Global Campaign for Peace Education

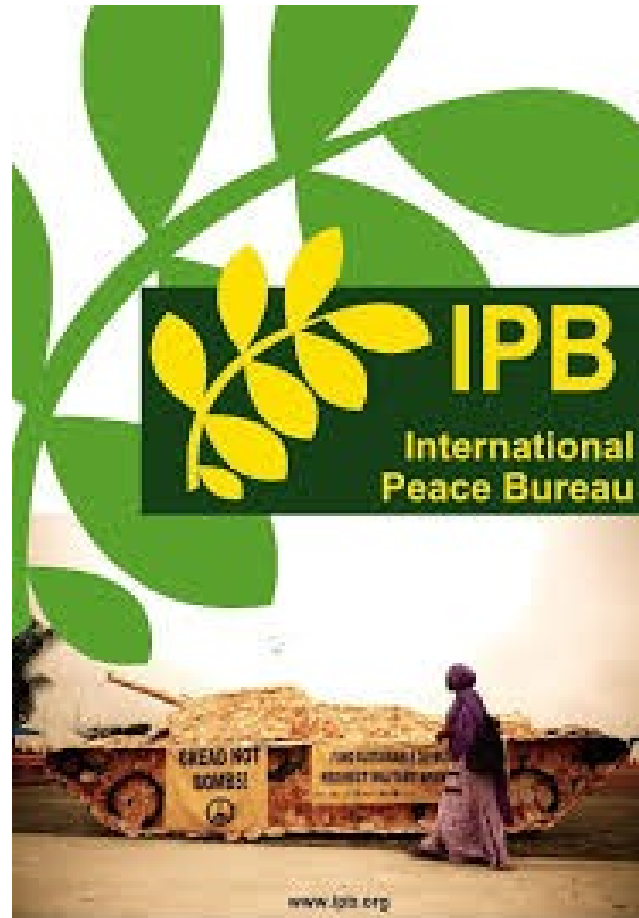

Hague Appeal Youth Agenda

Women and Peacemaking

Disarmament for Development

Disarm. for Dev.

OPPORTUNITY COSTS: Military Spending and the UN's Development Agenda

A view from the International Peace Bureau

Making Peace Photo-Exhibition

Global Days of Action on Military Spending (GDAMS)

#MoveTheMoney Selfie Campaign

GLOBAL DAYS OF ACTION ON MILITARY SPENDING

Demilitarize! Invest in people's needs

Global Campaign on Military Spending (GCOMS)

ARTWORK BY ESCIF

MILITARY SPENDING
COSTS US
THE EARTH

The Opportunity Costs of Military Spending:
How and Why it's Time to Rethink our Priorities

22 April 2020 | 11:00-13:00 | Online Webinar

Join us for a workshop and dialogue that critically examines global military budgets and imagines how these resources could be reallocated to social causes and development such as combating climate change, improving infrastructure, and investing in education.

International Peace Bureau
Marienstr. 19-20, 10117 Berlin
+49 (0)30 12084549
info@ipb-office.berlin
www.ipb.org

facebook.com/ipb1910/
@IntlPeaceBureau
@intpeacebureau

IPB is a registered nonprofit organization with its headquarters in Berlin, Germany. Working with a network of member organizations in over 70 countries, its main mission is a world without war.

IPB
International Peace Bureau

‘Forward!’

