

Title: Youth Gathering for Peace – Alexandria

Organizer: Abdou El Oihab Mohamed Ali, medical student & youth activist (Comoros/Egypt)

Type of Action: In-person youth event

Description:

On September 21, I will organize a physical youth gathering in Alexandria to celebrate the International Day of Peace. The event will include a discussion on peacebuilding, intercultural dialogue, and the role of youth in creating a more peaceful society. Participants will share personal messages of peace, and we will also hold a symbolic activity such as a peace circle or planting a tree to represent hope and unity.

Objective:

- To engage young people in Alexandria in meaningful dialogue about peace and solidarity.
- To promote understanding and cooperation among youth from different backgrounds.
- To connect our local efforts with the global peace movement.

Expected Outcome:

- Strengthened awareness of peace values among local youth.

-Creation of a small network of young peace advocates in Alexandria.

-Contribution to the international visibility of grassroots peace actions.
